PART I.

IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS.

CHIEF SECRETARIAT.

An examination in the Religious and Charitable Endowments Regulation and the rules thereunder, and the Muzrai Manual.

READ—

Letter No. C. C. 24—29-30, dated 21st November 1929, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, proposing that Amildars, Deputy Amildars and Clerks doing Muzrai work may be required to pass an examination in the Muzrai Regulation and the rules thereunder.

ORDER NO. R. 5329-88—L. R. 245-29-4, DATED 31ST JANUARY 1930.

In the interests of the efficient discharge of Muzrai work, the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, proposes that an examination in the subjects noted in the margin with a paper for two hours, carrying 100 marks, may be prescribed and that all the Amildars and the Deputy Amildars and the Clerks attending to Muzrai work and the new recruits to the Muzrai Commissioner's Office, should be required to pass the examination. The Revenue Commissioner further proposes that the increments of Amildars and Deputy Amildars who fail to pass this examination within three years after their confirmation should be stopped. Government consider that the Revenue Commissioner's proposals are suitable and they are pleased to approve of the same. In the case of Amildars and the Deputy Amildars who have already been confirmed this order will apply only to those who have been confirmed during the past two years.

1. Religious and Charitable endowments Regulation and the rules thereunder.
2. Muzrai Manual.
